Description:

The works were created in 2016 and 2017 for the exhibition "EYES" in Bärnbach

In the exhibition "EYES" in Bärnbach, ARTHENNA MAXX "presents numerous works by her AUGE for the first time in her home country. ARTHENNA MAXX designed its own cycle for this exhibition. Extracts from essential works from this creative phase are included in this cycle.

All paintings were painted on canvas and jeans fabric integrated, refined with gold leaf, silver leaf or copper leaf. The cycle has vivid, colorful works. The paintings are presented in the typical ARTHENNA MAXX style from a mix of abstract painting combined with the performing arts assigned to fantastic realism, catalogued and rated by MMag. Neil AZZAM. All works are a material mix and mix in the painting technique and are images of the time in different areas (historical and interpersonal time images)

The painting SEA & EYES stands symbolically for the longing for a trip around the world, in the floating lifestyle.

The paintings GOLDEN EYES II and II show different cultures traveling around the world.

The paintings JEANSEYES are eyes of pain painted on denim, reflective and weeping and yet they shine and find the golden mean.

The paintings MUSIC EYES I and II are a tribute to the world-famous star trumpet player Tony Maier, a long-time friend and relative of ARTHENNA MAXX.

The paintings MOTHER & FATHER and MAX & MORITZ are the intimacy of the family, which intuitively has an inner eye for one another.

The paintings LADYS EYES I and II is a dypichon and shows the strong elegant femininity followed by envious, admired or eager looks.

The painting AMY Eyes is another painting assigned to this cycle and is privately owned by the family of ARTHENNA MAXX. Amy Eyes was the cover picture of ART Miami 2019 of the ARTHENNA MAXX catalog and can be purchased separately.
